

Dear USPS,

People who have achieved great things usually have their own stamps. It's a very special privilege. I believe that Rosa Parks should be aloud to have her own stamp. Here is why I believe this:

The action that she did that made her famous was not giving up her bus seat to make room for a white passenger. The bus driver called the police on her. She was only in jail for a day before she was bailed out.

Rosa had many titles. She was an African-American civil rights activist and she earned the title 'The First Lady of Civil Rights' from Congress. She also received the title 'The Mother of Freedom Movement'.

Rosa had also earned many awards on behalf of her historic action. Many include the 'Presidential Medal of Freedom', 'Congressional Gold Medal' and the 'Spingarn Medal'. Rosa has had many great achievements during her life.

Rosa mad a real difference in America. Her name will remain in history textbooks for generations to come. But even though she wasn't one of the first, she was part of the people with the big impact.

From,
Natalie
